Born and educated in England, Jeff has resided in Treharris for the last six years.

He is a very proud family man, having two sons and three grandsons with a fourth grandchild expected prior to Christmas 2017.

Jeff has his own business situated in the community where he specialises in Employment law, Human Resources and Business Administration as a Business Consultant.

Jeff is proud to be a member of the Treharris and Bedlinog Branch of the Labour Party and is Secretary for that organisation locally.

Jeff is also on the Board of Governors for Afon Taf school and is the Community Governor and Chair of Bedlinog Community Primary School governing body. Since election to the post of Chair, Jeff has spent many hours working on behalf of and representing the school and the Governing body of the school at various events, including supporting the school pupil's extra-curricular activities, the school in relation to the local authority and its various directorates applicable to the school.

Jeff has been assisting in solving communal problems within the community prior to the election of the new County Councillors.

Jeff has been co-opted onto the Community Council and over time, hopes to gain and build trust of the communities of Bedlinog and Trelewis.

All councillors, whatever their political persuasion (or of none), try their best to bring about positive change to the communities they serve. Jeff will be no exception.
